General rules of conduct

Campers are expected to portray a Christ-like character at all times in both their behavior and actions. No person shall be allowed in or around a dorm of the opposite sex. This includes all sleeping quarters, block dorms, rooms above the girl's dorm and personal campers. Exceptions; Husband, wife, and children in a private room or camper.

Camp curfew is set at 11:00 pm, at which time all campers are to be in bed with the lights out and no noise unless praying in the tabernacle. Lights must be on in the tabernacle and adult staff or adult supervision shall be present. If service has run late, the Principal will have the authority to extend the curfew past 11:00 pm. Single Campers are not to couple up, hold hands, or walk arm in arm with the opposite sex.

Radios, TV, CD players, mp3 players, IPODS and video recorders are prohibited in the camper's rooms. Campers are not allowed to have cell phones while attending Camp. Campers are not to leave the tabernacle after the evening service until the "LEAVE" sign has been posted on the pulpit. (This is only to single youth campers during Family Camp.) Campers are not to leave the grounds without the permission of the Camp principal

Non licensed campers are prohibited from driving any motorized vehicle around the Campgrounds. District vehicle usage must be approved by the Camp Principal. The lake, including the boat dock, and all other watercraft, and the adjoining property are off limits unless accompanied by a supervisor or parent.

No pets are allowed. Exceptions ADA approved animals, camper must tell the registrar of his/her special needs.

Security

Because of the day we live in, and due to the nature of open Camps with cars coming and going off the Campgrounds throughout all the camps, the following procedures shall be followed. All licensed pastors staying on the Campgrounds are asked to make themselves available to the Camp Principal for night security. The Camp principal shall pick from this pool of Pastors. This excludes the District Board and Honorary Board members.

All cars entering and exiting the Camp Grounds at night shall be stopped at the gate. A light shall be shown inside the car for safety purposes.
